ABOUT ME

I'm an ecommerce customer support specialist with 2.5 years of experience at JQ Global Solutions Inc., supporting international buyers on a global online marketplace. I'm used to fast-moving queues, and I resolve concerns on order tracking, refunds, disputes, order lookups, and account issues clearly and with empathy.

I consistently maintained above 85% CSAT and a 95% monthly QA score, because I believe good support means accurate answers, a calm tone, and following through until the concern is resolved. I also handled email support, including updating buyers on escalated cases. Now I'm bringing that experience to online store owners who need a reliable partner for customer support, inbox management, and daily operations.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Customer support via chat and email
- Order tracking, refund, and dispute handling
- Escalation updates and buyer email communication
- Account issue resolution
- High-volume queue handling with strong quality scores
- Inbox management, lead tracking, and calendar scheduling

SAMPLE EMAIL SUPPORT

SCENARIO: A buyer writes in saying the tracking shows delivered, but nothing arrived.

My Approach: Acknowledge the concern, check the tracking details, ask the buyer to check with neighbors or the building reception, and give clear next steps and timelines.

Sample Reply:

Subject: Update on your order #123456789

Hi Maria,

Thank you for letting us know, and I'm sorry for the inconvenience this has caused. I understand how frustrating it is when tracking says delivered but the package isn't with you.

I've checked your tracking details, and it shows the package was marked delivered on October 3. To help us resolve this quickly, could you please:

1. Check around your home, mailbox, and with neighbors or building reception
2. Reply with any details that might help, such as a photo of the delivery area

If the package still can't be found by October 8, we'll move forward with a replacement or refund, whichever you prefer. I'll keep following up until this is resolved.

Warm regards,
Argine

SCENARIO: A buyer's concern needs to be passed to another team, and they need to know what happens next.

My Approach: Reassure the buyer, explain that the case has been escalated, and set clear expectations on timing and next steps.

Sample Reply:

Subject: Your case has been escalated

Hi Daniel,

Thank you for your patience. I've escalated your case to our specialist team for a closer review, so you won't need to explain the issue again.

- The team will review your case within 2 to 3 business days
- You'll receive an update at this email address
- If you have new details or photos, simply reply to this message

Thank you for your understanding. I'm here if you need anything in the meantime.

Best regards,
Argine
